Expansion of Prime Brokerage Services

Britannia Financial Group (Britannia) is pleased to announce the expansion of Britannia Global Markets Limited's Prime Brokerage offering, to include the trading of FX, Index and Commodity CFDs.

The new offering will be supported by state-of-the-art technology platforms, including Lucera, PrimeXM, MetaQuotes and MaxxTrader.

Britannia's partnerships with award-winning financial services technology providers, will support the Group in providing cutting edge aggregation software, ultra-low-latency connectivity, institutional-grade hosting solutions and high end MT4/MT5 Bridging and White Labels, to its clients. Britannia will also become XCore community members, demonstrating its commitment to the FX and CFD space.

Samuel GUNTER, Head of Foreign Exchange Trading, commented:

"We are excited to grow our Prime Brokerage offering to include CFDs and further expand our technological infrastructure, which will allow us to effectively service the increasing demand from our clients.

Britannia is committed to providing a best-in-class service to our growing professional and institutional clients through a broad range of trading and investment solutions. This new offering and investment reflect the bedrock of Britannia's strategy, to utilise technology to innovate the Group's trademark boutique, personalised services."
